

My name is Sarah Pritza. I am the mother of five children; three are grown and on their own, and two are in high school. I have been a stay-at-home mom for the last twenty years but this summer I received my substitute teacher permit and have been enjoying the challenges of the classroom.

Prior to staying home, I worked in a lab and served two years active duty and eight years reserves in the Army. Over the last twenty years, I have coached multiple sports, however, soccer is my favorite and the one I have pursued the longest (21 years) and with the most zeal. Currently, I coach three club soccer teams in addition to high school soccer in the spring. When I am not coaching, I can usually still be found on the soccer pitch as a referee for both competitive and high school soccer. This is my 6th year as a referee and my 5th year as a coach at Roncalli Catholic.

Any downtime I find is spent working on my master's degree in Coaching Performance. My favorite team is Chelsea in the English Premier Soccer League. My favorite bible verse would have to be Philippians 4:13, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." A fun fact is that I never really played soccer as a kid. Everything I have learned is self-taught.
